OntheNet Flatrate Addendum to the OntheNet Terms and Conditions

- a) A maximum of one (1) login at a time is permitted for each user ID.
- b) Idle logins may be automatically disconnected after some period of inactivity. Automated methods to avoid inactivity disconnection are not permitted.
- c) Up to four (4) hours of continuous connection time is permitted. Accounts may be disconnected and disabled for ten (10) minutes after four hours of continuous connection time.
- d) OntheNet Flatrate is not to be used as a continuous connection and no static IP address will be assigned to a connection. OntheNet offers a permanent modem product for customers who require a continuous connection. No email aliases shall be provided.
- e) During peak periods modems may not always be available.
- f) Flatrate is designed for experienced internet users.
- g) Flatrate is only available on the Gold Coast flatrate number. Flatrate plan subscribers will not be able to login to the OntheNet premium service dialup numbers on the Gold Coast or in Brisbane.
- h) Telephone connection rates may apply to calls to POP's that are made from outside the local call service area. To confirm that local call rates apply, please ring Telstra on 1800 113011. They'll perform a line test from the phone you're ringing on to the relevant OntheNet modem number provided to you. It is your responsibility to check whether it is a local or STD call for you to ring your dialup number.
- i) 56Kbps modem access will be available at the 56K V.90 standard supported. No ISDN logins will be permitted for the Flatrate plan.
- j) Subscriber accounts are payable by Credit Card only. Payments will be charged in advance on the first of each month, or as near as possible afterwards, and will also include any excess download fees.
- k) New subscribers who sign up before the 15th of each month will pay $25.00 for that month and those who sign up on or after the 15th will pay $12.50 for that month. A $22.00 establishment fee is applicable for all new subscribers.
- l) There is a download limit of 300Mb data per month with excess charged at 19 cents per Mb. Users have the option to disable their account when their allocated 300Mb is used.
- m) No hard copy of invoices or credit card receipts will be issued. End of Financial Year printed statements will be provided upon payment of a $5.00 fee.
- n) $25.00 monthly fee applies regardless of monthly usage.
- o) OntheNet reserves the right to change or withdraw the Flatrate plan at any time.
